

“ An inspired,
intuitive
career
move. Thank you Ramsay Consultancy for making it
happen. ”

Do you want to deal with recruitment consultants who have actually experienced what it's like to be in a senior position in a law firm, who intimately understand the strategic issues in the market, who talk to you as an equal, who understand your individual needs, who look for lateral career solutions rather than just filling the vacancies in front of them?

If you are looking for this – then talk to Ramsay

If you are interested in finding the perfect job (in Scotland, London or the rest of England), please call Tony McInnes or Martin Street at Ramsay Consulting on 0845 644 5485 or contact us by e-mail to arrange a confidential discussion with no commitment.
